Longhorn Family Partners

A Texas Family Tradition

Your student is a Longhorn — part of a lifelong community bound together by pride, ambition, achievement and their determination to change the world.

Now, you have the opportunity to take on a special role in the Longhorn network and help The University of Texas at Austin maintain its strong tradition of excellence in research, learning and discovery.

Longhorn Family Partners are some of the University's leading parent and family donors. Join us today.

Parents and family members of current UT students are invited to be recognized as Longhorn Family Partners after making a high-impact gift commitment to invest in UT's world-class faculty, students and programs.

Members support the University's mission with their giving, share a family perspective with UT leaders, advise on family engagement strategies and connect with other supportive families on campus.

Deepen your involvement with UT and network with other leading Longhorn families. Longhorn Family Partners are invited to exclusive on-campus events each year, and your membership lasts throughout your student's time on the Forty Acres.

Every gift matters. Your major gift commitment to any area of campus qualifies you for an invitation to join Longhorn Family Partners.

- A scholarship that opens the door for students with financial need.
- Support for your Longhorn's college, school or major.
- Endowed professorships, graduate fellowships or programmatic support to empower our world-class faculty.
- Gifts supporting research and innovation that will fuel the discoveries and solutions of tomorrow.
- Excellence funding for your family's favorite team, library, museum or organization.

A donor advisor is ready to learn more about your family's interests and share how you can make a difference. ►

Donors have a transformational impact on the work we do here at The University of Texas at Austin.

Philanthropic support helps us recruit and retain exceptional faculty and prepare our students — the leaders of tomorrow — to change the world. We raise the bar in everything from the arts and humanities to scientific research and entrepreneurship. And it all starts with parents, friends and philanthropic investors like you.

“We are both UT alumni, and our children have continued the tradition. We are so grateful for not only the education we gained here, but also the lifelong friendships. We feel we owe a great debt to UT for helping put us on a path to success.”

“Your student has come to the Forty Acres at a special time when The University of Texas at Austin is poised to thrive like never before. There is no limit to what they can achieve here.

At UT, we are deeply committed to helping students reach their greatest potential. When Longhorns receive the opportunities and experiences provided by a world-class education, they can go on to change the world. We make that vision a reality every day thanks to the University's generous community of donors.

I hope you will join us and be recognized as Longhorn Family Partners. Hook 'em!”
